NCHC PROGRAM OVERVIEW

HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES COMMITTEE

May 2024

Our Partnership with Our Community

In 1972, formation of the current three-county organization took place.

This was the first multi-county system of care.

Three continue today.

Mandated Programs at NCHC

- Marathon, Lincoln and Langlade counties are 3 of 10 counties in Wisconsin not operating as a human services department.
- The programs at NCHC and the Social Services Departments together meet the statutory requirements for Human Services.

Desired Future State

North Central Health Care and Marathon, Lincoln, and Langlade County Departments of Social Services work seamlessly together in delivering human services to vulnerable individuals in our communities. Inpatient services deliver treatment and stabilization to support individuals with an organizational priority focus on providing care and services in our communities.

- Target population: Behavioral health and AODA, child welfare, youth justice, adult protection and the criminal justice system.
- This positively impacts the work of our partners: Law enforcement, the courts, schools and medical.
- Community focused services are the optimal models of successful outcomes for those we serve, are cost effective, and are also in the best interest of all residents of our counties

Human Service Leadership Team

- Christa Jensen, Marathon County
- Jessi Rumsey, Lincoln County
- John Zenkovich, Langlade County
- North Central Health Care:
 - Jason Hake, Managing Director of Finance
 - Gary Olsen, Executive Director
 - Vicki Tylka, Managing Director of Community Programs
