Find medical billing errors and you may be eligible for a cash reward

Hospital billing is a complex process that is prone to human error. In fact, numerous studies show that many hospital bills contain errors or excessive charges.

Since you are probably paying co-payment portions of your medical bills, it's definitely in your best interest to request itemized bills from your health care providers and check for any questionable items.

After all, if you double-check a restaurant or utility bill, it makes sense to also review a hospital bill that may run several thousand dollars. By doing so, you might also qualify for a medical bill review incentive!

How the medical bill review incentive works

When you or a member of your family receives services from a physician, dentist, hospital or clinic, check your bill carefully. If you find errors that reduce the plan's costs, you could be eligible for a monetary incentive for identifying and correcting the errors.

Examples of errors you may find include:

- Incorrect arithmetic
- Drugs or supplies that were not received
- Treatments or services that were not received

Should you find such errors:

- Report them to the provider of the service and request a corrected, itemized bill
- Send UMR a copy of the original bill with the errors circled and a copy of the new bill showing the provider's corrections

If you're correct, you could be eligible to receive a percentage of the amount found in error on the bill!
